About Ascendigo: Ascendigo Autism Services is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization based in the Roaring Fork Valley near Aspen, Colorado. Founded in 2004 as a summer sports camp for children with autism, Ascendigo has expanded to offer year-round outdoor recreational options including summer and winter sports, a suite of community-based services for adults with autism, and behavior therapies for children with autism. Our goal is to integrate people with autism into community life, whether through outdoor recreation, assisting in basic life skills, finding compatible employment, or simply going out with friends to restaurants, museums, or concerts. Ascendigo takes full advantage of the unmatched natural facilities offered by Colorado's Rocky Mountains, as well as the area's charitable community spirit to open physical, experiential, and collaborative opportunities to individuals with autism. Currently, Ascendigo employs approximately 65 full- and part-time staff members with an additional 60-65 seasonal employees during the summer months.

Job Summary: The Ascendigo Alpine Manager (AM) oversees the climbing component of our summer camp programming. The AM supervises the alpine team (two to four Alpine Specialists) which includes but is not limited to assigning tasks, delegating responsibilities, coordinating logistics, overcoming interpersonal conflicts, etc..
